Fairy Meadow Netball Club Addendums to Netball Australia Code of conduct

- A. Players are refining skills in their dominant positions. Players can be called on to play any position as required by the team.
- B. Player's court time during the season and in finals is at the discretion of the coach. An individual coach's policy regarding court time should be explained to players at the beginning of the season.
- C. Each senior team is obligated to provide two umpires each Saturday to cover umpiring duty. Teams not providing umpires will be fined and will lose points. Umpires are expected to be competent and wearing FMNC colours.
